INSTRUCTIONS:

Students should answer the following questions in their book review:

- A) How many stars do you give the book? (1 star– just okay; 2 stars– pretty good; 3 stars– great; 4 stars– excellent)
- A) Why did you give the book that rating?
- B) Would you recommend this book to a friend and why?

Students should consider what a critic might say about a movie. They can talk about characters, scene selection, the plot, etc. Tell us if it was suspenseful, funny, dramatic, etc. But don't tell us the ending! We want to find that out for ourselves! Book reviews are accepted from readers of all ages. Reading ability is not a consideration for posting or videotaping a student! Enthusiasm is what counts! ## Here is an example of a good book review:

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone, written by J.K. Rowling, is a suspenseful great read. This story follows Harry Potter, an 11 year old boy, from the moment he finds out he is a wizard to the climatic ending where he must face his mortal enemy, Lord Voldermort. This books is filled with adventure and adventure as Harry learns about the wizarding world, makes new friends, and discovers his past. If you like adventure, suspense, and good humor this is the book for you. To find out if Harry survives his encounter with Voldermort you'll just have to read the book! I give this book 4 stars and I think everyone should read it!
